

Battleship Cove

Wednesday, July 29th, 2015

EVENT: Join us on our journey to Battleship Cove on scenic Mt. Hope Bay to visit the world's largest collection of World War II naval vessels. The vessels stationed here that form Battleship Cove are the USS Massachusetts, the USS Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., USS Lionfish, Hiddensee, PT Boats, and the USS Fall River. Individually, each ship represents different moments in history and technical achievements. Collectively, these vessels symbolize American sacrifices made in defense of our freedom.

COST: The cost of the tour includes admission to Battleship Cove and transportation in the Recreation Department Van. Lunch will be on your own at The Taphouse Grille which features modern American fare with something on the menu for everyone to enjoy!
